

D-BOX IS INSTALLING THE VERY FIRST SCREENS IN THE CITY OF MUNICH AT THE KINOPOLIS FLAGSHIP SITE

Montreal, Quebec, November 5th, 2019 – D-BOX Technologies Inc. (TSX:DBO) (“D-BOX”), a world leader in immersive motion entertainment experiences, is extremely pleased to collaborate once again with Kinopolis, one of the biggest cinema group in Germany. As part of this new contract, D-BOX is installing motion seats at their flagship cinema complex, Mathäser Filmpalast, in 4 auditoriums including one large format screen. This exciting announcement brings the total number of D-BOX screens with Kinopolis to 31.

Munich moviegoers will finally have a whole new way to watch movies in which the movement in the seats is synchronized with the action on the screen for a totally immersive movie experience.

“We are very happy to build on our partnership with Kinopolis and deliver an exciting new entertainment option in the most popular and lucrative movie theatre in Germany,” states Claude Mc Master, President and CEO for D-BOX. “Moviegoers will now have the chance to be a part of the storyline like never before.”

“We are always searching for new ways to provide the most innovative cinematic experience for our guests,” says Dr. Gregory Theile, CEO for Kinopolis. “Debuting the immersive power of D-BOX motion at the Mathäser Filmpalast is a natural for us, since more than one fifth of all our customers watch movies in this historic venue. We are convinced it will have a significant impact at the box office.”

The Mathäser Filmpalast is Munich’s largest cinema with a colourful history that dates all the way back to 1918.
